

GRACE PLACE GUIDELINES

For admission to Grace Place each applicant must complete the pre-admission paperwork and go thru the interview process to determine acceptance into Grace Place. Applicants who are accepted to Grace Place fully understand and agree to the following guidelines:

- Grace Place is a Christian living facility and can house up to 6 women. Serious consideration should be given by the applicants as to whether they feel that they can live in harmony with other residents and exist in a Christian environment.
- Understand that Grace Place is a faith based Christian housing and are willing to attend Church in the community, participate in the in-house faith growth groups and volunteer.
- Applicants who are accepted, will be expected to participate in activities at Grace Place. This includes: planned activities, community activities, house meetings, household chores and ground work, volunteering, attend church and all individual activities prescribed in their care plan.
- Applicants who are accepted, who have a history of alcohol or drug abuse will be expected to attend AA or NA or other support groups as required.
- Grace Place is a drug and alcohol free facility. UA's can and will be asked for at any time. A positive drug or alcohol test or a refusal of a test could constitute immediate discharge or removal from the residence.
- Applicants who are accepted should understand that their commitment in the program is a 12 month minimum commitment, with an extended time period available, if deemed necessary. However, discharge may occur at any time if the resident is not abiding by the guidelines, expectations and rules of Grace Place.
- Should you decide to voluntarily terminate your contract with Grace Place, you agree to give a 24 hour notice and not disrupt the peace for the rest of the residents at Grace Place.
- Grace Place charges residents rent on a sliding fee of 25% of income. (subject to change/adjustment)
- Applicants must be willing to share legal history and financial information with Grace Place.
